Helena, Montana
1972

The Montana State Library is pleased to issue Montana in Print as a guide to librarians, teachers, and others building collections of Montana material or interested in knowing more about the state.

This bibliography has been compiled by Mrs. Marie P. MacDonald, Librarian of the Glendive Public Library and Chairman of the Local History Committee of the Montana Library Association, and Harold L. Chambers, then Catalog Librarian for the Montana Historical Society (Mr. Chambers has since become Documents Librarian for the Montana State Library). Funds available to the State Library under Title III of the Library Services and Construction Act have supported its preparation, as a means of furthering access to library materials for all types of libraries in the state.

Classification numbers used in the bibliography are those assigned by the Montana State Library for titles in its collection at the date of this compilation.

Montana in Print is a selected list of publications of interest to Montanans. It is intended as a new edition of earlier bibliographies published by the Montana State Library: Montana As It Is and Was, 1966, and Books About Montana and the West, compiled by Rita McDonald, 1962. Both are now out of print.

Adult fiction, junior fiction, non-fiction and periodicals are the divisions used. Adult fiction includes young adult books (Y), mysteries (MY), and westerns (W). In the junior fiction list, primary grade and picture books are indicated by a grade level notation. Otherwise the novels are for fourth through ninth grade reading level.

All non-fiction is listed together, since many books with Montana information will be useful in either adult or juvenile collections, or in both. Significant grade levels are given. Where the title is not sufficiently descriptive, I have added, in parenthesis, a brief annotation. A star indicates a highly recommended item.

A majority of the books included are by nationally known publishers. These and Montana-printed books and pamphlets can usually be purchased through the Montana Historical Society or at various state book stores. Direct ordering information is also included as far as possible.
